INFORMATION ON THE PROCEEDINGS

"Cooling Off" period – This is the period referred to in Rule 18(1) CTM IR. During this period the parties are given the possibility of terminating the proceedings without incurring in additional costs. If during this period the opponent withdraws the opposition or you withdraw your trade mark or restrict it to goods and services against which the opposition is not directed, the proceedings will be concluded with no decision on costs. The cooling off period may be extended at the request of both parties provided that such request is filed before it expires. If the cooling off period is extended, the subsequent time limits set to the parties will also be extended accordingly.

Adversarial part of the opposition proceedings – During the adversarial part the parties are given the chance of exchanging observations and evidence in support of their cases. For such purpose, the Office sets a time limit for the opponent to substantiate the earlier rights and submit further material and a subsequent time limit for you to reply. Time limits during the adversarial part of the proceedings may be extended in accordance with the conditions set out in Rule 71 CTM IR. Requests for extension must be filed before the expiry of the prescribed term and must include a suitable explanation showing that the extension is appropriate.

a) Time limit for the opponent to substantiate the earlier rights and submit further material. Within this time limit the opponent may file any further facts, arguments and evidence that may be necessary or useful to support the opposition. In particular, the opponent is required to substantiate all the earlier rights on which the opposition is based, that is, to prove the existence, ownership and validity of such rights, by submitting appropriate evidence. Any such material will be forwarded to you.

b) Time limit for you to reply. Once the opponent's time limit expires you have two months to submit your observations in reply and to file any supporting documents or other evidence you may consider useful. This period will be extended by the Office if this is necessary to ensure that you have at least two full months to respond to any new material submitted by the opponent. In these instances you will receive a further communication setting a new time limit as appropriate.

Unless submitted by fax transmission, any supporting documents or other evidence shall be presented in two copies, one being for transmission to the other party (see Rule 79a CTM IR). Any document or item of evidence, other than that consisting of loose sheets, that has been submitted to the Office by post, personal delivery or any other means shall be accompanied by a copy. If no copy is provided, these documents or items of evidence will not be taken into account.

If you do not submit any observations, the Office will give a ruling on the basis of the evidence before it.

Schedule 1

Explanation of grounds:

The sign MACARAJA (the "Sign") applied for by the Applicant in this application (the "Application") is similar to the Opponent's marks MAC, MAC OS and IMAC (the "Marks"), as protected by the registrations referred to above (the "Prior Registrations").

The goods and services covered by the Application are identical or similar to those protected by the Prior Registrations. Because of the similarity between the Marks and the Sign and the identity or similarity of the goods and services covered by the Application and the goods and services protected by the Prior Registrations, there is a likelihood of confusion (including the likelihood of association) on the part of the public throughout the European Union between the Marks and the Sign. As a result, the Application should be refused under Article 8(1)(b) of Council Regulation 207/2009/EC.

The Opponent relies also on the reputation of the Marks, as a result of which there will be an increased likelihood of confusion on the part of the relevant public between these Marks and the Sign.

As a result of the Opponent's extensive use of the Marks, the Opponent has acquired a substantial reputation in the Marks throughout the European Union, and the use of the Sign would take unfair advantage of, or be detrimental to, the distinctive character and/or the repute of the Marks. As a result, the Application should be refused under Article 8(5) of Council Regulation 207/2009/EC.

This applies regardless of whether the goods and services of the Application are found to be identical and/or similar and/or dissimilar to the goods and services protected by the Prior Registrations.

The Marks are well-known marks in the European Union within the meaning of Article 6bis of the Paris Convention. Because of the similarity between the Sign and the Marks, the use of the Sign is liable to be prevented under the terms of the Paris Convention.

The Opponent is the proprietor of earlier signs consisting of the Marks, whether used alone or in conjunction with other signs of the Opponent, which are used in the course of trade throughout the European Union as indicating the goods and/or services of the Opponent. The use of the Marks confer on the Opponent the right to prohibit the use of the Sign. As a result, the Application should be refused under Article 8(4) of Council Regulation 207/2009/EC and at least under the following national laws:

Passing off and Section 5(4) TMA 1994 (in the United Kingdom);

Passing off and Section 10(4)(a) TMA 1996 (in the Republic of Ireland);

Section 15(4)(ii) TMA (in Denmark);
Sections 1, 2 (3), 6, 14 (6) TML (in Finland);

Article 5(2)(a) (in Hungary);
Article 12(1)(b) and Article 25(1)(a) Codice Proprietà Industriale (in Italy);
Article 4(4), (7) TML (in Latvia);
Article 12B Uniform Benelux Law on Marks and Article 17 alinéa f, de la loi du 27 November 1986 réglementant certaines pratiques commerciales et sanctionnant la concurrence déloyale (in Luxembourg);
Article 6(4)(a) TML (in Malta);
Article 12B Uniform Benelux Law on Marks and Law of 5 July 1921 on trade names and Article 6:612 of Dutch Civil Code (in Netherlands);
Article 191 and Article 33(1)(b), PT Industrial Property Code (in Portugal);
Article 4(d) TML (in Slovakia);
Article 3(2), Ley de Marcas (in Spain);
Sections 1, 2(1), 2(3), 6, 14(6) Swedish Trade Mark Act (in Sweden);
Chapter 2 Section 6 (e) Law on Trade Marks and Geographical Indications No.84-1998 (Romania); and Article 12 Law on Marks and Geographical Indications (Bulgaria)

The Opponent requests the refusal of the Application in its entirety.

In the alternative, the Opponent requests refusal of that part of the Application for which it is shown that grounds for refusal of the Application exist.

The Opponent requests that an award of costs be made in these proceedings in favour of the Opponent.
